Ms. Reynolds began employment as an Architectural Historian for Culture Resource Analysts, Inc.'s Lexington office in May 2011. As an Architectural Historian for CRA, Sarah's responsibilities include researching and documenting historic properties by conducting archival research and field surveys, evaluating the significance of historic properties, and preparing written reports that provide summary findings and recommendations for various types of cultural historic projects. Before employment at CRA Sarah worked as an independent consultant for several different projects where she conducted archival research. While pursuing an MHP degree Sarah worked as a Research Assistant for the Lexington-Fayette Urban County Government. While there she assisted with inspections of properties located within Historic Districts, performed archival research related to historic properties, assisted with documentations of historic structures, and helped prepare for Board of Architectural Review hearings. Additional Training: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Innovative Approaches to Section 106 Mitigation, Webinar, Advisory Council on Historic Preservation, 2013.
