Professional Experience Summary

Architectural Historian I	Graduate Assistant
Cultural Resource Analysts August 2018-Present	Historic Preservation Department, Ball State University August 2017 – May 2018

Prior to her current employment with CRA, Ms. Reynolds served as a graduate assistant with the Historic Preservation Department at Ball State University. Part of this assistantship involved working with the APT (Association for Preservation Technology) to create material preservation briefs for their OSCAR website. While completing her education, she also held an internship with Indiana Landmark’s Eastern Regional Office in Cambridge City, Indiana. Alyssa was part of a HABS (Historic American Buildings Survey) class at Ball State where her group received second place for the Peterson Prize by completing drawings and a history of an historic schoolhouse. After graduate school, Alyssa has been employed as an Architectural Historian.

As an architectural historian for CRA, Alyssa has served as a field supervisor and surveyor responsible for researching and documenting historic properties by conducting archival research and field surveys, evaluating the significance of historic properties, and preparing written reports that provide summary findings and recommendations for various types of historic architectural projects. She worked in many states including, Arkansas, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Michigan, Missouri, Nebraska, North Carolina, North Dakota, Tennessee, Virginia, & West Virginia. Alyssa’s primary work is to provide Section 106 documentation for transportation jobs, primarily for INDOT.
