

Visit us online at <http://www.crai-ky.com/>

Tracy H. Jenkins, PhD, RPA	Staff Archaeologist, historical archaeologist
Availability: Immediate Email: thjenkins@crai-ky.com RPA Registration No.: 4703	Specific Duties: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Research Design • Conduct Fieldwork • Historic Artifact Analysis • Archival Research • Report Preparation 	Education and Training: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ph.D., anthropology University of Maryland College Park, Maryland • M.A.A., applied anthropology, University of Maryland, College Park, Maryland • B.A., anthropology/history, College of William and Mary Williamsburg, VA

Experience Summary Information
Staff Archaeologist Cultural Resource Analysts, Inc. 2020 – present	Archaeologist The Hill Community Project, Easton, MD 2012 – 2020	Staff Archaeologist Archaeology in Annapolis Project University of Maryland 2012 – 2020

Dr. Jenkins is one of a team of full-time survey and excavation personnel. His duties encompass all aspects of seeing these projects through to completion. These responsibilities include research design, fieldwork, laboratory analysis, and final report preparation. Since 2009, Dr. Jenkins has participated in field research in Virginia, Maryland, Tennessee, and Alabama. His main focus is historical archaeology on sites dating from the eighteenth century to the present. In addition, he has experience working with stakeholder communities to integrate their interests and knowledge into archaeological studies. Dr. Jenkins regularly presents papers at regional and national conferences and has five refereed publications. Dr. Jenkins' specialized skills include historic artifact analysis, archival research, historical analysis, oral history, and GIS.

Experience:

- Directed 1 monitoring project, 11 archaeological surveys, and 2 NRHP evaluations
- Participated in 8 surveys, 3 NRHP evaluations, and 3 data recovery excavations
- Participated in 7 academic research surveys and excavations
- Directed archaeological portion of The Hill Community Project, Easton, MD, including both research and public engagement
- Directed six archaeological field schools at the University of Maryland, College Park, in Easton, Talbot County, and Annapolis, Maryland
- Directed laboratory processing, curation, and analysis for three Archaeology in Annapolis projects

Recent Projects (directed):

- Price Gray genealogy for Westhaven MOA process, 40WM263, Williamson County, Tennessee.
- Phase I survey of 40CE303, Claiborne County, Tennessee.
- Phase I survey of UCOR spoil areas, Oak Ridge, Tennessee.
- NRHP evaluation of 40SM251, Smith County, Tennessee.
- Due diligence survey in North Huntsville, Madison County, Alabama

- NRHP evaluation of 40WM263 and 40WM264 in Williamson County, Tennessee
- Phase I survey of Pressmen's Home stream revitalization, Hawkins County, Tennessee
- Phase I survey for TDOT CSX bridge replacement, Knox County, Tennessee
- Phase I survey at Oak Ridge National Laboratory, Roane County, Tennessee
- Phase I survey for Westhaven development in Williamson County, Tennessee
- Phase I survey for TVA 69kV Battery Energy Storage System in Monroe and Blount Counties, Tennessee
- Phase I survey for TDOT Norris Industrial Park Industrial Access road in Anderson County, Tennessee

Selected Publications:

2021. "Sustaining Tangible Neighborhood Change through African-American Archaeology in Easton, Maryland: Evaluating The Hill Community Project." International Journal of Historical Archaeology special issue, edited by Camille Westmont and Elizabeth Clay.
2020. "To Dwell, I'm Determined, on That Happy Ground": An Archaeology of a Free African-American Community in Easton, Maryland, 1787-Present. Doctoral dissertation, Department of Anthropology, University of Maryland, College Park.
2020. "An Intersectional Archaeology of Women's Reproductive Rights." Historical Archaeology 54(3):581–604. <https://doi.org/10.1007/s41636-020-00256-2>.
2019. "How Can There Be no History?" With Mark P. Leone, Stefan Woehlke, Kathryn Deeley, Elizabeth Pruitt, and Benjamin Skolnik. Historical Archaeology 53(2):674–685. <https://doi.org/10.1007/s41636-019-00199-3>.
2018. The Archaeology of Early African American Communities in Talbot County, Eastern Shore, Maryland, U.S.A., and Their Relationship to Slavery. With Mark P. Leone, Elizabeth Pruitt, Benjamin A. Skolnik, and Stefan Woehlke. Historical Archaeology 52(4):753–772. <https://doi.org/10.1007/s41636-018-0143-6>.
2017. "Allies and Intersections: Frederick Douglass and the Knitting Together of Progressive Movements." In Atlantic Crossings, edited by Lee Jenkins and Mark P. Leone. Brill, Leiden, Netherlands.

Additional Training:

- Online workshops from the Advisory Council on Historic Preservation: What is Section 106; Successfully Navigating Section 106 Review, 2021
- Certificate in the study of early American history, National Institute for American History and Democracy, College of William and Mary, 2012
- Adult CPR, AED, First Aid, University of Maryland Department of Environmental Safety, Sustainability, and Risk; OSHA Competent Person: Excavation, Trenching and Shoring (8 hrs)