

| Zackery Hamilton-Cruze, RPA | | Principal Investigator, Archaeology | |
|---|--|---|--|
| National Park Service Professional Qualification: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Archaeologist • Architectural Historian Years of Experience: 8 Years of CRA Employment: <1 | Specific Duties: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Supervise fieldwork • Material and data analysis • Report writing and oversight | Education and Training: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • M.A., Anthropology, Maritime Archaeology, University of West Florida • Graduate Certificate, Historic Preservation • B.A., Anthropology University of West Florida, Pensacola, FL | |
| Experience Summary Information | | | |
| Principal Investigator Cultural Resource Analysts, Inc. 2022 – present Allstar Ecology, LLC 2018-2019 | Historic Preservation Specialist and Tribal Liaison Federal Emergency Management Agency 2017-2018 and 2020-2022 | Staff Archaeologist Prentice Thomas and Associates 2015-2017 Maritime Field Supervisor University of West Florida Archaeology Institute 2015-2016 | |
| Zackery Hamilton-Cruze has experience in both archaeological survey and architectural review in Florida, Alabama, Louisiana, West Virginia, Ohio, Pennsylvania, and California. His experience includes supervisory and field roles associated with Section 106 of the National Historic Preservation Act, archaeological surveys, National Register evaluations, Tribal Nation consultation, and excavations at both prehistoric and historic archaeological sites including mapping, excavation, and remote sensing survey of submerged shipwrecks and industrial coastal landscapes. He has authored technical reports for clients that include local, state, and federal governments, as well as private individuals and developers. In association with disaster recovery projects, he has served as a federal technical advisor and completed project review for a variety of laws and executive orders including NEPA, Floodplain and Wetlands Management Act, Environmental Justice, and No Effect determinations for the Endangered Species Act. Mr. Cruze currently serves as a Principal Investigator for the West Virginia office of Cultural Resource Analysts, Inc. His duties include assisting with proposals and budgets, material and data analysis, and report writing and oversight. REPRESENTATIVE TRAINING <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Advisory Council of Historic Preservation, Section 106 Advanced Seminar • Building Partnerships with Tribal Governments, Emergency Management Institute • NEPA Navigator, Archer Institute of Environmental Training • Applying the NEPA Process and Writing Effective NEPA Documents, Shipley Group • GIS Data Formats, Design and Quality, University of California, Davis • OSHA 40 Hour HAZWOPER training | | | |

RECENT PROJECT EXPERIENCE

- CRW Airfield, Safety, and Terminal Improvement Project EIS. Phase I archaeological survey and archival research in association with the development of and Environmental Impact Statement for the West Virginia International Yeager Airport. Project Archaeologist, artifact analyst, author. Lead Agency: FAA. Conducted for the Central West Virginia Regional Airport Authority.
- Marietta-Athens Pine Project. Phase I archaeological survey of 441 acres in the Wayne National Forest, Ohio. Project Archaeologist, author. Lead Agency: USDA Forest Service. Conducted for the Wayne National Forest.
- Paradise Wildfire Hazard Tree Removal Project. Tribal Liaison for cleanup effort of 97,200 hazard tree across Butte County, CA. Lead Agency: Federal Emergency Management Agency.
- 2020 California Wildfires Private Property Debris Removal Section 106 Lead Point of Contact. Coordinated consultation efforts with 88 Federally Recognized Tribes and two state agencies. Oversaw four archaeological consulting firms, reviewed and commented on archaeology monitoring plans, surveys, and results for lead agency acceptance and submission to SHPO. Lead Agency: Federal Emergency Management Agency
- Fitzgerald Pad, Cultural Resource Survey and Recordation of Nauvoo Cemetery. Cultural resources survey and cemetery recordation, Author and Principal Investigator. Lead Agency: USACE. Conducted for Tug Hill Operating.
- Spruce Mountain Grouse Management Area, Monongahela National Forest, Randolph and Pendleton Counties, West Virginia. Phase I archaeological survey of 364 acres in Randolph and Pendleton County, West Virginia. Principal Investigator. Lead Agency: USDA Forest Service. Conducted for the Monongahela National Forest.
- Panther Ridge, Volumes 1 and 2, Monongahela National Forest, Greenbrier County, West Virginia. Phase I archaeological survey of 1,200+ acres in Greenbrier County, West Virginia. Principal Investigator, artifact analysis, author. Lead Agency: USDA Forest Service. Conducted for the Monongahela National Forest.
- Cultural Resource Survey and Evaluation of PR-0019, Preston Coal and Coke Company for the Proposed Cascade Asphalt Plant. Architectural & archaeological evaluation for early 1900s Preston Coal and Coke Oven facility. Principal Investigator, Author. Lead Agency: USACE, Conducted for Greer Industries.
- NRHP Eligibility Evaluation for Greer Mansion. Architectural review for 1929 Greek Revival style residence of Agnes Greer, Architectural Historian. Lead Agency: USACE. Conducted for Greer Industries.
- Phase I Archaeological & Standing Structure Documentation of 1,189 acres in Vernon Parish, Louisiana. Architectural review, genealogical and land deed research and report writing, historical artifact and prehistoric ceramic analysis. Lead Agency: Department of Defense, Fort Polk Joint Readiness Training Center.
- Fort Polk-63: Phase II Testing and Evaluation of Eleven Sites. Historic artifact and prehistoric ceramic analysis and coauthor. Lead Agency: Department of Defense, Fort Polk Joint Readiness Training Center.
- Archaeological Investigation of 8VO9454 (Burial Ground at Florida Hospital). Analysis of coffin hardware and associated burial goods from late 1800 to early 1900 pauper cemetery.