

Daniel Vasquez, MHP	Architectural Historian/Historian
National Park Service Professional Qualifications: <ul style="list-style-type: none">Architectural Historian	Responsibilities: <ul style="list-style-type: none">Archival ResearchField DocumentationReport Preparation	Education: <ul style="list-style-type: none">M.S. Historic Preservation, University of VermontB.A. Anthropology, University of MississippiA.A. Architecture, Miami Dade College
Professional Experience Summary
Architectural Historian Cultural Resource Analysts June 2025 – Present	Florida’s Division of Historical Resources OPS Historic Site Specialist 2021 – 2023
Mr. Vasquez comes to CRA with experience historic preservation with experience as a Historic Site Specialist with Florida’s Division of Historical Resources. As an architectural historian at CRA, Daniel’s responsibilities include researching and documenting historic properties by conducting archival research and field surveys, evaluating the significance of historic properties, and preparing written reports that provide summary findings and recommendations. Daniel Vasquez holds a MS in Historic Preservation from the University of Vermont. While at UVM, his course work included preservation law, American architectural history, historic preservation policy and planning, architectural conservation, historic site management, and historic preservation practices. He interned with the Ethan Allen Homestead researching the Allen House’s history and its occupants from the late 1700s to the 1980s. Additional Training: <ul style="list-style-type: none">Vermont Division for Historic Preservation’s Qualified Professionals and Partners Training Recent Projects: <ul style="list-style-type: none">NRHP Nomination: Cornwall Daughters of the American Revolution House, Cornwall, Vermont. Co-authored, 2024.

