

cultural resource analysts, inc

Visit us online at <http://www.crai-ky.com/>

Travis Wesley Hurdle, BS		Business Development/Office Manager
Availability: Immediate Email: twhurdle@crai-ky.com	Specific Duties: Office Management Project Management Proposal Construction Report Preparation Project Logistics	Education and Training: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> B.S. 2006, anthropology, (magna cum laude), Western Carolina University, Cullowhee, NC
Experience Summary Information
Business Development Cultural Resource Analysts, Inc. 2011 – present	Archaeologist/Field Supervisor Southeastern Archaeological Research, Inc., 2007-2011	Historic Interpreter NC Department of Cultural Resources, 2006-2007
Mr. Hurdle has experience and training in GIS, site evaluation based on NRHP criteria, and the authoring/editing of technical reports. He has experience in survey and evaluation of coastal archaeological sites, principally in eastern North Carolina. He also is responsible for marketing, project management, office logistics, and administrative support to the Knoxville office. REPRESENTATIVE PROJECTS Mr. Hurdle has participated in a number of National Register evaluations, including the following: Archaeological Evaluation of 22 Sites in Various Training Areas at Marine Corps Base Camp Lejeune Onslow County, NC. Field Supervisor, contributing author and editor, GIS, artifact analysis, for evaluation of 22 prehistoric and historic sites. Archaeological Evaluation of 10 Sites at Marine Corps Air Station Cherry Point Craven County, NC. Field Supervisor, contributing author and editor, GIS, artifact analysis, for evaluation of 10 prehistoric and historic sites. Archaeological Evaluation of Nine Sites at Marine Corps Auxiliary Landing Field Bogue Carteret County, NC. . Field Supervisor, contributing author and editor, GIS, artifact analysis, for evaluation of nine prehistoric and historic sites. Archaeological Evaluation of 14 Sites in Moderate Use Training Areas at Marine Corps Base Camp Lejeune Onslow County, NC. . Field Supervisor, contributing author and editor, GIS, artifact analysis, for evaluation of 14 prehistoric and historic sites. Archaeological Evaluation of 17 Sites in the High Use Training Area at Marine Corps Base Camp Lejeune Onslow County, NC. Field Supervisor, contributing author and editor, GIS, artifact analysis, for evaluation of 17 prehistoric and historic sites. Archaeological Evaluation of 18 Sites in the Highest Use Training Area at Marine Corps Base Camp Lejeune Onslow County, NC. Field Supervisor, contributing author and editor, GIS, artifact analysis, for evaluation of 18 prehistoric and historic sites.

Archaeological Evaluation of Nine Sites in the High Use Training Area at Marine Corps Base Camp Lejeune Onslow County, NC. Field Supervisor, contributing author and editor, GIS, artifact analysis, for evaluation of nine prehistoric and historic sites.

Archaeological Evaluation of Eight Sites in the Highest Use Training Areas at Marine Corps Base Camp Lejeune Onslow County, NC. Field Supervisor, contributing author and editor, GIS, artifact analysis, for evaluation of eight prehistoric and historic sites.

Evaluation of Five Sites for Phases IV and V of the Family Housing Public/Private Venture at Marine Corps Base Camp Lejeune Onslow County, NC. Field Supervisor, contributing author and editor, GIS, artifact analysis, for evaluation of five prehistoric and historic sites.

Archaeological Evaluation of 19 Sites Associated with the United States Marine Corps Grow-the-Force Initiative at Marine Corps Base Camp Lejeune Onslow County, NC. Field Supervisor, contributing author and editor, GIS, artifact analysis, for evaluation of 19 prehistoric and historic sites.

Phase I Reconnaissance Survey of Historic Bath, NC. NC Department of Cultural Resources, State Historic Sites. Field Supervisor, artifact analysis, for shovel testing within the historic town limits. East Carolina University.

Representative Monitoring Experience:

MC252 Deepwater Horizon BP Oil Spill Response Team, Pensacola, FL and Gulf Shores, AL. Monitoring archaeologist.

Washington Electric Utilities, Buried Cable Installation, Historic Bath, NC. Monitoring archaeologist, artifact analysis, report preparation. NC Department of Cultural Resources.