

Visit us online at <http://www.crai-ky.com/>

Corinne A Taylor, MA, RPA		Archaeological Laboratory Director
Availability: Immediate Email: cataylor@crai-ky.com RPA Registration ID: 4580		Specific Duties: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Biological Anthropology</li> <li>• Curation of Collections</li> <li>• Archaeology and Cemetery Development Plans</li> <li>• Supervise Laboratory Work</li> </ul>	Education and Training: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• M.A., Anthropology, East Carolina University, Greenville, NC (2020)</li> <li>• B.A., Anthropology, University of Wyoming, Laramie, WY (2018)</li> </ul>
Experience Summary Information
Archaeological Laboratory Director Cultural Resource Analysts, Inc. 2025 – present		Bioarchaeology Research Specialist Arizona State Museum 2023 – 2025	Field Technician and Lead Osteologist Āina Archaeology 2020 – 2023
Ms. Taylor serves as the Laboratory Director in Cultural Resource Analysts, Inc's Evansville office. Her duties encompass overseeing all laboratory processes such as artifact processing, coordinating with curation facilities, and preparing artifacts and reports to be delivered to curation facilities and land owners. Ms. Taylor has experience in pre-contact and historic archaeology and bioarchaeology in the Pacific Islands, the Southwest, the Southeast, and the West. Ms. Taylor's specialize skills include the identification and analysis of human remains from pre-contact and historic mortuary sites. She has conducted excavations at pre-contact and historic mortuary sites and has participated in Phase I, Phase II and Phase III archaeological surveys. Phase III Experience Includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Ms. Taylor served as a field supervisor for a phase III investigation of an Early Agricultural site in Tucson, Arizona. She documented the ancestral remains and modified animal remains. She will co-author the associated technical report. The project was conducted for a housing development.</li> <li>• Ms. Taylor served as a field supervisor for inadvertent discoveries of a pre-contact and post-contact burials in Maui. She supervised the excavation of the ancestral remains and conducted a limited analysis of the recovered individual, and was author and coauthor of the report. The projects were conducted for private companies.</li> <li>• Ms. Taylor served as a field technician for a phase III investigation of the Greenwood Cemetery in New Bern, North Carolina. She helped excavate a burial vault in order to determine the condition of the remains. The project was conducted for the City of New Bern.</li> </ul> Phase II Experience Includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Ms. Taylor served as field technician for phase II evaluations of Native Hawaiian sites throughout Maui. She participated in the excavations and helped develop and edit the technical reports. The projects were conducted for various private companies.</li> </ul> Phase I Experience Includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Ms. Taylor served as field technician for phase I surveys in Maui and North Dakota.</li> </ul>

Bioarchaeological and Biological Anthropological Experience Includes:

- Recovery and documentation of over 500 ancestral remains from Native American and Native Hawaiian archaeological sites in Maui and Arizona. Contributing author, coauthor and lead author of associated reports and technical reports.
- Stable Isotope analysis of an 18th to 19th century plantation owning family in Brunswick County, North Carolina.
- Documented and analyzed fragmented commingled remains from Petra, Jordan.
- Excavated and documented 18th century unmarked human burials in English Harbor, Antigua.

Affiliations:

- Member of the Register of Professional Archaeologists

Additional Training:

- Occupational CPR and First Aid Training (yearly)